

REPORT ON THE NATIONAL SEMINAR ON “EMPOWERING
EDUCATORS: STRATEGIES FOR TEACHING IN A TECH-DRIVEN ACADEMIC WORLD”

CMS College of Education conducted a National Seminar on “Empowering Educators: Strategies for Teaching in a Tech-Driven Academic World” on 23rd February, 2025 at Mahatma Gandhi auditorium. The seminar was aimed at imparting the new modes of technology that could be incorporated in the classroom, for enhancing the teaching learning process. There were around 250 participants comprising of students and computer teachers from CMS group of institutions, in this seminar.

The inaugural session of the seminar began at 9.00 a.m. The Principal Dr. M. Leonard Ashok escorted the dignitaries to the dais. The seminar began with a prayer song rendered by the student teachers. The Kuthuvilakku was lit by the dignitaries. The Principal welcomed the gathering followed by the keynote address by Mrs.V. K. Subashini, Head of the Department of Computer Science, CMS College of Education. The resource persons were honoured with a memento by Sri. M. K. Rajesh, Joint Secretary, CMS College of Education.

A brief speech was given by the resource persons, Dr. S. SENTHIL, Professor and Dean, School of Computer Application, Dayananda Sagar University, Bengaluru, Dr. S. VINODH, Professor, Department of Production Engineering, National Institute of Technology, Tiruchirappalli, Ms. ROSHNI R MENON Assistant Professor, Department of Computer Science, Sahrdaya College of Engineering and Technology, Kodakara, Thrissur, Kerala and Dr. S. RANJITHA, Associate Professor, Department of Information Technology, CMS College of Science and Commerce, Chinnavedampatti, Coimbatore, who gave a clear insight into the different modes of technology that could be used in the classroom for effective teaching and learning

Dr. O. B. Pramod Kumar, Secretary, CMS College of Education, felicitated the gathering. This was followed by the vote of thanks by Dr. P. Ruckmani, Head of the Department of Mathematics, CMS College of Education. Lunch was served for all the dignitaries and participants of the seminar.

The technical sessions began at 11.30 a.m. The first session started at 11.30 a.m. which was addressed by Dr. S. RANJITHA. She highlighted on the technological tools for learning and evaluation. Dr. S. SENTHIL in the second session gave insights on how to develop a good personality, to be more successful in the teaching profession. Dr. S. VINODH, in the third session spoke about the new modes of technology which have significant importance in enhancing the teaching learning process. Ms. ROSHNI R MENON, in the fourth session, emphasized on the importance of modern technological aids in the classroom.

The Valedictory Programme followed the sessions. Dr. C. SUMATHI, Head of the Department of Biological Science, CMS College of Education welcomed the gathering. Prof. T. SANTHA MENON, Vice Chairperson, CMS College of Education, gave the valedictory address. Dr. O. B. PRAMOD KUMAR, Secretary, CMS College of Education distributed the prizes. The vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. P. GANESAN, Head of the Department of Geography, CMS College of Education.

The day's events ended with the National Anthem.

